Senior Class To Receive Rings In Ceremony Before Holidays

Seniors are awaiting the day when they will receive their graduation rings. The representative for the manufacturing firm could not give a definite date of delivery, therefore, the date of the distribution ceremony is to be announced next month.

Monsignor Martin Moloney, recently appointed pastor of Our Lady of the Gulf Church, will present the rings at a short ceremony in the College Chapel. Parents of the seniors, and relatives are invited to the ceremony.

The rings themselves are of the traditional St. Stanislaus design, modified by the seniors of 1951. The jewel is a deep red, with the letter "S" imprinted on it.

A recent source of pride among the seniors was the large size of their ring measurements, which were determined by a representativ of the Herff Jones Company, manufacturers of the rings.

Brother Andre New Provincial; Brother Roland Councillor

Brother Andre, principal of Saint Aloysius High School in New Orleans, has been named Provincial of the United States Province of the Brothers of the Sacred Heart. He will succeed Brother Martin.

The communique from the General Curia in Rome was dated November 8.

In the capacity of Brother Provincial, Brother Andre will direct all the works of the Brothers in his territory and guide them in both spiritual and temporal matters.

It is his task to assign the faculties to all the Brothers schools and to visit them at least once a year.

For the past six years Brother Andre has served on the provincial council.

Brother Andre

Brother Roland

Brother Roland has been named to the provincial council as third councillor to assist Brother Andre. Along with Brother Roland, the following were named as co-councillors: Brother Mark of McGill Institute in Mobile as first councillor; Brother Claver of the Sacred Heart Scholasticate in Mobile as second councillor; and Brother Eric of Msgr. McClancey Memorial High School in Jackson Heights, Long Island, as fourth councillor.

Brother Martin, the retiring Brother Provincial, will be the Econome for the province and Brother Benedict will continue in the capacity of provincial secretary.

Kenneth Aucoin Confrat Prexy

Kenneth Aucoin took over the presidential reins of the Junior-Senior Confraternity at the first meeting on November 4.

Fred Bourgeois, vice-president; Paul Diaz, secretary; and Frank Peterson, treasurer, are the other senior officers who help Brother Reginald with his many plans for this year. One of these is the already started weekly socials; the other is the Holy Hour held on the eve of each First Friday of the month.

The weekly socials are held every Saturday night, alternating each week between the SSC gym and the S. J. A. gym These dances are informal and stag; the music is supplied by a collection of the top popular records of today's recording artists.

The Holy Hours are made with the intention of making reparation for the sins committed against the Blessed Sacrament. The first in this series was held on November 6 with the student body invited.

The main items on the November 4 meeting were the reading of the objectives of the Confraternity and the reason for its being or-

Sister Calista, R. S. M. Gives Science And Geometry Tests Here

Sister Calista, R.S.M., the diocesan high school supervisor, gave tests in science and plane geometry to the seniors and juniors respectively.

The primary purpose of these annual tests, given to ten thousand students throughout the United States, is to find out exactly how Catholic high school students compare with other students in private, parochial, and public schools in other parts of the country.

Last year the tests were given in English and a survey was made of the English and Social Science Departments.

Sister made it clear to the reporter that the reason these tests were given in the fields of math and science is not based on the latest "threat" that Russia has made toward our educational system, but to see if the engineering fields as well as the liberal arts are properly balanced.

Tests have been given by the supervisor in different Catholic high schools in northern and central Mississippi and now she is testing the gulf coast. At the present time Sister could not evaluate the results of the state-wide survey.

However, if a student is in the upper fifty percent, Sister said, he is to be commended and others that are below the halfway mark will be given pointers on how to improve themselves.

These tests are only a small part of the diocesan testing program. Tests will be given throughout the year to all grades.

Sister Calista, R.S.M., diocesan high school supervisor, explains to science teacher, Brother Reginald, the objectives of the recent math and science survey of the Natchez-Jackson Catholic Schools.

Brother Eldon, S. C. Appointed New Teacher

Senior B has a new homeroom teacher in the person of Brother Eldon. He replaces Brother Ralph who is now prefect of the Big Study Hall.

In addition to his regular classes Brother also coaches the junior basketball team.

Brother was stationed at the Sacred Heart Juniorate in Daphne before his transfer here. Previous to this, he was stationed at St. Aloysius in New Orleans for 5½ years where his Junior Team held an enviable record.

He is a native of Baton Rouge and is an avid LSU Tiger fan. He graduated from Catholic High in Baton Rouge and then completed his studies for the Brotherhood in St. Joseph's Metuchen. At present he is registered in the Notre Dame University summer school program leading to a master's degree in theology.

Bro. Donnan, Vocation Director, Makes Round Of Classrooms

Recently Brother Donnan, the vocation director for the entire United States Province, visited the campus in order to give the students talks on vocations.

Brother Donnan spiced his informative addresses with vivid examples of the purposes of the Brotherhood and the ideals behind it. In his talks he injected humorous anecdotes to clarify his points.

Along with literature presented by Brother Donnan there was a questionnaire to be filled out by the students in order to survey the vocational interests of the student body.

Formerly the vocation director of the northern section of the province, Brother Donnan is now province-wide vocation coordinator.

Pupils To Represent Student-Body At Catholic Business Education Contest

Representatives from the student-body will again participate in the Catholic Business Education Association contests.

These contests will be held in May at the O'Reilly Auditorium in Jackson, Miss. Sister Mary Matthew, R.S.M., commercial teacher at St. Joseph's in Jackson, is contest chairman.

Last year St. Stanislaus representatives swept the first four places in the Catholic Views test and won awards in bookkeeping and spelling and honorable mentions in Catholic Views and spelling.

This year the contests will include Catholic Views, Spelling I and II, Shorthand, Typewriting I and II, bookkeeping and business law. Trophies will be presented to the top five students of each division.

Brother Damian advises that those who wish to compete in one or more divisions start "boning up" on the subjects in which they wish to compete. Elimination tests will be given in March. Students with the highest scores will be the representatives in the competition in Jackson.

In each division a school may enter five students with the exception of Typing I where 10 may enter competition.

The only test that requires special preparation outside of class is the Catholic Views test. All the others are geared so that they cover the matter that is covered

Qualifiers In NMSC Face Next Test Dec. 6

Adrian Combe, Arthur Cagle, and Karl Gottschalk will take the next test in their quest for a National Merit Scholarship on December 6.

These three boys, along with all the other qualifiers in the NMSC program will take the College Board Entrance Examination. Any other student may take this test but the fee is $16. This test is compulsory and the top scorers will be eligible for NMSC scholarships.

The Board of Trustees expects to have 800 eligible for these scholarships and another 200 will receive Certificates of Merit.

The NMSC program's scholarships will be apportioned according to the financial need of the candidates.

The lowest scholarship to be awarded will be worth $100.00 per year for four years.

Shame, Shame On Old Notre Dame

By Robert Homes

I

The cloud-racks bellowed and thickened
On a gray back-drop of sky,
And the hearts of the spectators quickened
At a storm-bird's lonesome cry.

The bleachers were crowded with fans
Of the Stanislaus eleven,
Though the night was black as meridians
'Twixt hell-fire and heaven.

For hours 'neath a thunder-head,
'Neath a looming, coal-back cloud,
They'd watched for the show of the black and red,
The sight of those jerseys proud.

The lights that lit the stadium
Seemed smothered and cloaked with night,
And the football arena had become
An oval of erie light.

Then suddenly a cheer rang out,
It bellowed and boomed and roared;
'Twas shouted by hundreds of fans devout,
To deafen the cheering hoard.

Cheers were sung in widening scope
By every Stanislaus fan,
For out on the field swarmed their living hope
In this combat of man and man.

Along the dim-lit field they ran,
Underneath the cloud-filled sky;
And in their hearts was a conqueror's plan,
On their lips, a battle-cry.

All watched intent, the red and black,
None heeded the darkened sky;
And none distinguished the cloud's thunder-crack
From the cheers that rose on high.

The Rebels had an overdose
Of confidant self-esteem;
But not in ten years had the Rebs come close
To beating a Rockachaw team.

II

Then the reff called the captains out
From the Rocks and Notre Dame;
Both teams had great records, without a doubt;
This was the deciding game.

The Rebels would have first control,
They had won the judge's toss:
They were to receive at the Northside goal
On the kick of Stanislaus.

Sure and boastful was Notre Dame
As the drums rolled for the kick;
But set and determined the Rocks became
And they acted lightning-quick.

A Rebel back received the ball
And tiptoed straight down the line.
But with four on his toes, he began to stall,
And went down on the Rebel nine.

From that time on, St. Stanislaus
Romped over old Notre Dame;
They showed the Rebels just who was the boss
And just who deserved the fame.

The Rebs drove hard for one touchdown,
But the Rocks gained three TD's;
And at last the Rebs saw all their renown
Slipping by them by degrees.

III

Three times the Rebel eleven
Drove hard, but not quite between
The markers; and still their score was seven
To the Rockachaw's nineteen.

But still the Rebs fought hard and strong,
But the Rocks fought harder yet,
'Till the only thing left was a pass so long
That the Rocks could not forget.

The Rebels formed a huddle small;
Their quarterback touched his end
And whispered, "Its all or nothing at all—
On this pass will the game depend."

Then the quarterback took the snap
From center, and whipped a pass
Way back in the end zone toward the chap
Who was waiting on the grass.

The ball arched high above his head
And then sailed down to the man;
But there loomed behind him a jersey red,
And a Rock grabbed the ball and ran.

The Rebels charged and brought him down
But with that, the clock ran out;
And with the game, went the Rebs' fair renown
As the fans raised a mighty shout.

And so the fans of Notre Dame
Could sigh, "What a shameful loss."
Cheer up, you Rebels, for you its no shame
To lose to the great Stanislaus!

Please Won't You Help Me!

I am a tired, embarrassed candy wrapper. I am tired because I had to protect the candy bar you just bought all the way from the manufacturer. I am embarrassed because now I have been thrown on the campus sidewalk and I am left to the open scorn of visitors and suffer the humiliation of being stepped on by Rockachaws.

Won't you please help me in my plight—please won't you retire me into the nearest trash can? I have served you well; that candy tasted so good only because I stuck to my job. All I ask in gratitude is that you do not put me where I am open to public scorn. Please give me the privacy I feel I have earned.

Among Our Leaders

Bourgeois Caps Leader Award

Freddie Bourgeois is the second member of the senior class to be named "Among Our Leaders."

Serving as president of the Confraternity in the eighth grade; treasurer in the sophomore year; elected senator in the 1958 Mississippi Boys' State; and senior class vice-president, Freddie was, in the minds of the nominators, "the high school student who merited this distinction because of excellence in school work, extra-curricula activities and general conduct."

FREDDIE BOURGEOIS

Freddie is the son of Mr. Fred J. Bourgeois of Waveland, Miss.

Toward Greater Victories

by Robert Homes

In 1959, the slogan for the March of Dimes is "Toward Greater Victories". As the March of Dimes moves forward in its victories, its first new targets are two of the greatest cripplers of all—arthritis and birth defects. At least 11 million Americans suffer the pain of arthritis and rheumatism each year; birth defects afflict 284,000 infants annually.

The time is coming when men will not be subject to the whims of nature, when disease and defects of the body will be regarded as rare and unusual. But that time is not yet. That time will only be when man has made it so by long labor and unceasing search into nature, such as men are doing now. But their work is slow, it is hindered on all sides, and especially by a lack of the necessary equipment.

Always have great ideals and priceless dreams been shackled by stubborn practicalities. It is no less true today. Material disadvantages must be overcome; and it is only through our generosity and foresight, and the charity of all men, that the dreams of the disease-fighters will come true. The time is not yet the right time; and perhaps the world is not yet ready for the solution of its problems. But the world will only be ready when its people have fought and sweat blood for the solutions.

The least we can give is our material help, to help overcome all the worldly obstacles. This must go hand in hand with any spiritual assistance we can give. Our faith in God must be shown, not only in our prayers, but in the support of His Church, as far as we are able. So with this great cause. Let us have faith in the outcome and pray for a solution to these problems of polio and birth defects. But let's not forget to sacrifice what we can for the support of this program.

Band Travels To Biloxi Clinic

by David Bishop

The annual State Clinic will be held at the Buena Vista Hotel, Biloxi, December 10 through 13. There will be three seventy-five piece clinic bands made up of the best student musicians selected from one hundred and twenty high school bands in the state.

The Stanislaus Band will be represented by Warren Carver, Jr., Clarinet; David Bishop, Saxaphone; and Albert LeBlanc, Baritone Horn. The clinic will close with a concert for the general public on Saturday night, December 13, in the Buena Vista Hotel, at 7:30 P.M.

The Stanislaus Band did a very fine job in playing the hymns for the outdoor Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament on the occasion of the Feast of Christ The King. It was impossible for the band to take part in the procession because there were not enough players to do justice to the music on the march.

This reporter has been keeping watch on the Junior Band and is happy to say that this group is progressing nicely and most of the students are showing much promise. The fact that only a few have dropped out is a very good sign that the interest is good.

Brother Alban will be "Chef de cuisine" for the annual band fete on December 15. The Band's Lady Auxilliary will sponsor the banquet for the band members and their dates. Following the dinner, a social has been planned.

Herman Jacobi's Pass Offense Chops Notre Dame Rebs 19-7

Herman Jacobi's passes gave the Rocks a 19-7 victory over the undefeated Notre Dame Rebels.

In the opening quarter of the game, quarterback, Herman Jacobi started his terrific passing offense. He completed a 25 yard aerial to end Jimmy Riordan, who ran the ball 25 more for the first Rocks' tally. The try for the extra point failed.

The ball then went to the Rebels who failed to get through the SSC defense, and were forced to punt. Jacobi's passes continued to hit ends, Jimmy Riordan and Dee Cambre, which placed the Rocks on the Notre Dame's 2 yard line. Johnny Kimball, took the hand off and went right through the Rebels' wall, to pay dirt.

Notre Dame came back on the second period with their only tally of the game. Going over in a 3-yard plunge was fullback Mike Terril. Johnson kicked the extra point. So at the end of the second period the Rocks led 12-7.

Taking the kickoff in the second half the Rocks took to the air again. After a series of continuous first downs, Jacobi's pass met Dee Cambre in the end zone for the third score of the night. Taking the pigskin again Jacobi's pass for Ronnie Artigues was completed for the extra point.

The game was over and the Rocks took their fifth straight victory of the season, at their last home game played on October 31.

Quarterback Herman Jacobi completed 9 out of 15 tries, and covered 190 yards on the air.

Jack Alexander, Robert Vanpeski, George Reitmayer, Jack Mashburn, James Shippey, Wayne Cleveland, and Mike Chase, held the Rebels to 95 yards on the ground.

Nine Senior Rock Gridders See Last Action As Bogalusa Clash Draws Season To A Close

Kenny Aucoin. On the varsity his first year, Kenny has taken over the jobs of guard on the Rocks' offense and inside linebacker on the rugged defensive squad. Kenny, who hails from Vacherie, Louisiana, has made many key blocks and tackles throughout the year.

Mike Chase, a big tackle from Lutcher, Louisiana, is now in his second year playing first string tackle. He has shown great spirit throughout the season and has served both offensively and defensively for the Rocks.

Jack Mashburn, a rugged 185-pound offensive center from Hammond, Louisiana, is now in his second year of full-time duty with the Rocks. Last year Jack received the Most Improved Player award from Coach Reuben Ruiz. He has certainly lived up to this award by being one of the outstanding inemen in the Rocks' forward wall.

Jack Alexander, a transfer student from Warren Easton, played a valuable role on both offense and defense. Jack, a guard on offense and a center on defense has made many key blocks and has caught many opposing backs behind the line of scrimmage. Jack is from New Orleans.

Cyril Giarrusso, a speedster in the Rockachaw backfield, has broken lose quite a number of times on touchdown jaunts. A transfer student from Warren Easton High School of New Orleans, Cyril has played important roles as fullback and halfback on the Rocks' offensive group.

John Odom. Big and husky John Odom has been a definite factor in many of the Rockachaw games John, a 230-pound tackle from Homer, Louisiana, is here at St. Stanislaus for his first year. He has made fine showings of himself on the Rockachaw defense as well as on the Rocks' offense.

Freddie Bourgeois. Freddie is a 160-pound halfback from Waveland, Mississippi. Last year he played with the varsity, but saw little action. This year, however, Freddie has been a fine defensive halfback, as well as a swift ball carrier for the Rocks.

Herman Jacobi, a Rockachaw veteran now in his third year with the varsity, has been a spark to the Rocks' offense all year. Herman, an accurate passing quarterback and a charging outside linebacker, is a hometown boy.

James Shippey. One of the smallest men on the team, weighing only 135 pounds, Jimmy has been a valuable defensive halfback for the Rocks all year. In his second year with the varsity, Jimmy makes up for his size with crashing tackles made deep in the Rocks' secondary. He is a Waveland boy.

Rockachaws Maul Lumberjacks 13-6 Leaving SSC With 7-2 Season Record

"Go! Go! Go for a touchdown!" Spurred the Rockachaws onto their sixth consecutive win of the season over the Bogalusa Lumberjacks 13-6.

In the first quarter of the Nov. 14 game, neither team got a score. However, the Rocks first tally came in the second period. Herman Jacobi completed a 16-yard aerial to Jimmy Riordan, and a 20-yard toss to Dee Cambre placed the Rocks on the Bogalusa 12. From there Ronnie Artigues swept through to John Odom's right tackle position for the TD. The Lumberjacks stopped the Rocks' conversion.

Bogalusa took the third period's kick-off but were forced to punt. Then the Rocks started their second touchdown drive. Halfbacks Ronnie Artigues and Johnny Kimball sparked the 78-yard drive and Buddie Harvey took Herman Jacobi's handoff to go over from the 1-yard line.

Jacobi's pass to Jimmy Riordan was good for the extra point.

With two minutes left in the game Bogalusa recovered a Rock fumble which placed the Lumberjacks on the SSC 22-yard line. From there they went for their only tally of the game. The drive was climaxed by a pass from Jimmy Rickson to Ed Butch in the end zone.

The SSC outstanding defenders of the night were: Dee Cambre, John Odom, James Shippey, Kenny Aucoin, Jimmy Riordan and Robert Van Peski.

In the offensive line Jack Mashburn, George Reitmeyer, Jack Alexander, Mike Chase and Wayne Cleveland crumbled the Bogalusa wall.

Junior Rocks Edge Gulfport Eleven 7-6

The Junior Rocks edged a 7-6 victory over the Gulfport Junior Commodores.

The game was played in the Rock stadium on November 3.

It was a tight game all the way. The first quarter remained scoreless without much threat from either team. But in the opening minutes of the second quarter, the junior Rocks made the winning touchdown and the extra point which was the deciding factor of the game. In the third quarter, Gulfport's first serious threat came when a Commodore broke in the open but was caught and tackled and then fumbled. The Rocks recovered.

by Robert Homes

Basketball nets have been popping again, as the Rock cagers begin another tough-schedule year. Coach Happy Mahfouz volunteered the names of several top-notch opponents; among them are Gulfport, Biloxi, and Redemptorist of New Orleans. Pass High was the first of our opposition.

LETTERMEN RETURN

Returning lettermen to the cagers are: Brent Seward, Ronnie Artigues, Freddie Bourgeois, J. E. Loiacano, Carlos Lam and Pat Mashburn.

New hoopsters are: E. J. Babin, James Melerine, Louis Ingles, Jimmy Riordan, Ron Jackson, Jerry Black, Finley Hewes, and Gary Blaize.

Coach Mahfouz, Managers Mike Chase and Pete Bourgeois are expecting a great team, headed by Jimmy Melerine as captain and Freddie Bourgeois and Ronnie Artigues as co-captains.

JACOBI MEETS GREENIES

Herman Jacobi, top Rock QB, was excused from school several weeks ago in the middle of the day. The reason: to visit Tulane University and find out about a possible football scholarship there.

Leaving class before noon, he had time to meet Coach Andy Pilney of the Greenies and talk with him and the rest of the Tulane coaching staff. He also had the pleasure of meeting Green Wave stars, among them, Phil Nuget and Richie Petibon. In the afternoon, he watched the freshman squad work out on the field.

Ricky Nelson's Lonesome Town First Pick of High School Poll

The STAX OF WAX this month was complied from the results of a student poll in which 140 students took part.

The method of choosing these songs was: the first choice received 1 point; the second choice, 2 points; the third choice, 3 points, etc. After the points for each song were tabulated they were added and then this total was divided by the number entering the poll. The lower the average points given to a recording the higher it placed on the Stax of Wax listing.

HERE ARE YOUR CHOICES

Lonesome Town by Ricky Nelson placed number one on the survey. Number two, To Know Him Is to Love Him by the Teddy Bears has been dedicated to the SJA students. Number three, Elvis Presley's One Night sounds like a boarder's weekend visit home. It's Only Make Believe by Conway Twitty is dedicated to the SSC dreamers and hit the number four spot. The Kingston Trio has one for all the prisoners on death row, Tom Dooley, for number five.

The number six spot goes to Larry Williams and his Peaches and Cream. Sweet Little Rock and Roll by Chuck Berry is the number seven pick. Tommy Edward's Please Love Me Forever must be the plea of many a Rock judging by its number eight position.

With Your Love, The Stanislaus playboy song, is given the number nine position. Tea for Two Cha Cha by Tommy Dorsey placed last in the stax.

The writers of this column would like to thank Kirk Mattle '58 for bringing to their attention an error in last month's column. "Tears on My Pillow" was by Little Anthony and the Imperials not by the Moon Glows.
